We believe that youth groups and youth workers are in the best position to help young people develop in their relationship with God and their group. At Kairos we place an emphasis on empowering groups and giving spaces for them to grow together.

Kairos is made up of food, activities, , fire-pits & marshmallows, workshops, seminars, sports and games as well as times of worship and teaching.

One named group leader goes free per group if booked before
30th June (Catering can be added for £22)
